THIRD WARD RADICALS.—After considerable delay and by dint of hard persuasion "a quorum"—fifteen—of the "simon pure" of the Radical party were congregated together at the room in Lowe's building—known as "Marshall Hall"—last night about nine o'clock, and after further delay, occasioned by the absence of any notarial luminary, save that vouchsafed by the moon beams, struggling through the dirt-covered panes, until a "dip" or two could be procured, T. J. Edelin called those present to order, when A. B. Crupper was chosen Secretary.

Talking commenced with the organization, the first object of attack being Mr. Porter, who, Hannibal King intimated had fooled somebody. He said Mr. P. had informed the committee that he would support the Conservative ticket. It was a very strange proceeding, and one he did not understand.

S. Heflbower stated that Mr. P. had said, in his presence, that he (P.) was a Republican and would support the Republican ticket.

Jos. Colton was glad the Conservatives had taken Porter up. He was a good Republican and a "live" man.

John Fields said that Mr. Porter, in order to sell larger, had to affiliate with a certain class. L. Lightfoot, of the Second Ward, gave his testimony in reference to Mr. P.'s Radicalism.

After a free talk about harmony, the disadvantage of Ward meetings, &c., &c., Mr. Colton said that a dispatch had been received from W. N. Berkley authorizing them to "go ahead" and he would "foot the bill."

He stated that Lumpkins, being dissatisfied about the financial condition of the party had signed his disposition to quit, whereupon, Lumpkins accused Colton of "deviating from the truth," (only he put it in stronger language,) and asserted that Colton was not fit to be in any party, and wanted him expelled from the organization. This caused some confusion, amidst which

Colton was heard to say that Lumpkins was actuated in his earnest desire for the welfare of the party by the hope of securing an office in Washington.

Fields becoming disgusted quit the room. Jackson thought Lumpkins was engaged in a good work, as it required grease to keep the machine running.

Colton had some objection to the appointment of an Executive Committee by the city Radical nominating Convention, which caused Lumpkins again to assail C. for his course in reference to the last election for delegate to the Legislature.

Colton retorted by stating that Lumpkins did not possess sufficient brains to run the Third Ward Radical Club or anything else.

Edelin was also opposed to the appointment of the Executive Committee, among its members being Lewis McKenzie, who, in his opinion, did not represent the Republican party at all.

Heflbower said that the least that was said about the Executive Committee the better.

Lumpkins asserted that there were several parties—a Heflbower party, a Berkley party and a Colton party.

Brown thought that the chairman of the late Convention had committed an irretrievable error in appointing the Executive Committee.

John Birrell appeared and announced that he was going to vote the straight Radical ticket.

Colton was as good a Radical as any man, but he did not think Berkley was. He (B.) was ashamed of the crowd; he was never seen at any of the Ward meetings. Heflbower said that the action of the nominating Convention be ignored (general confusion)—but after sometime the motion prevailed, and the Third Ward Radicals were absolved from further allegiance to the nominees.

J. Patton thought he had stumbled in, by accident, upon a Conservative meeting, which he never attended, and if he should be so unfortunate as to get into one, he would go out "like a dog, without being kicked." Colton had tread on his (P.'s) corns when he undertook to traduce the character of Berkley, whom he "loved." Was for crushing rebels, and condemned the action of the nominating Convention for bringing Steuart's name before it.

Colton denounced Steuart for advocating Steuart's claims, and announced that he (Colton) would vote for Latham—much confusion. Ford did not think Colton amounted to anything.

Heflbower, "tired of hearing nonsense," said he was going home—and went.

Marshall was for letting disagreeable things pass by unnoticed.

Bailey was ashamed of the Republican party on account of their behaviour. He was for concealing some scheme for getting voters here from abroad.

A Vigilance Committee, consisting of Heflbower, Lumpkins, Jackson, Crupper and Ford was appointed.

S. Heflbower and G. A. Lumpkins were appointed an Executive Committee for the Ward.

Marshall hoped for peace, but Colton's voice "was still for war," and after much confusion, and a general scramble for the "floor," the crowd, at 11 o'clock, dispersed.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY.—Judge Keith presiding.—Commonwealth vs. William Jackson, charged with murdering his wife, in Alexandria county. The counsel for the prisoner objected to the trial of the cause in this Court upon the ground that the prisoner had not been properly arrested and was denied the right of a preliminary examination, and the motion was overruled.

The prisoner's counsel then moved to quash the venire facias on account of informality, which was also overruled.

The defence then moved a continuance on the ground of the absence of a material witness, which motion was sustained and the cause continued to the November term next of the Court.

Court adjourned till Friday at 11 a. m.

THE ALEXANDRIA GRAYS.—The new plan for uniforming the members of this company, goes into practical effect, to-night, at a meeting to be held in Stewart's building. The plan is substantially that each member is pledged to bring in person, or by proxy, to each stated or weekly meeting, a deposit of $1.00 to be placed to his credit, on account of the purchase of uniforms. This arrangement, while it will fall easy upon the members individually will in a very short time accumulate such a fund as will justify the company in issuing the contract for the uniforms. As will be readily seen, however, the success of the plan depends entirely upon the members attending strictly to the terms of their obligations.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.—George Swansberry, for disorderly conduct, on complaint of his mother, was fined and discharged.

Sandy Jones, on complaint of Armistead Holmes, both colored, for disorderly conduct and for an assault, was fined and discharged.

Elizabeth Stores, for disorderly conduct at a dance house last night, was fined and discharged.

George Schmidt, for disorderly conduct, and for resisting and striking an officer, was, in default of the payment of the imposed fine, committed to the work house for 90 days.

NIGHT REPORT.—Night clear and cool.—There were no disturbances and but two prisoners at the station house.

Two new passenger cars for the Atlantic Air Line Railroad passed through here this morning.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about noon to-day, was caused by the burning of a warehouse belonging to Mr. B. H. Lambert, and adjoining the one in which that gentleman has his counting room, on the Strand, between Duke and Prince streets. The roof was entirely consumed. The warehouse belonging to the estate of R. G. Violet, adjoining the burning building on the west, and that belonging to Mr. R. H. Miller, adjoining it on the north, were injured but not seriously. Mr. Lambert had about nine thousand bushels of grain stored in Miller's warehouse—that in which he has his counting room—which was slightly damaged by water; and Suttle & Stuart had thirty-five hundred bushels of grain stored in Violet's warehouse, which was also damaged; but both lots were fully insured, and Violet's warehouse was also insured. During the conflagration, the roof of McClellan's cooper shop, G. H. Markell's storehouse, the back part of Dyer's plaster mill, McKnight's carpenter shop and a building owned by Mr. Chas. House, all in the immediate neighborhood, caught fire from flying sparks, but were speedily extinguished. The fire department, as usual, was promptly on the ground, and it was owing to its exertions that the spread of the flames was prevented. The fire caught from sparks from the chimney of the Spoke factory, near by.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION takes place to-morrow. We hope there will be no discussion in the Conservative ranks, but that there will be a solid, united vote by the Conservatives for their nominated candidates. They are faithful, honest, and intelligent gentlemen, having the interests of the community at heart, and are deserving of the support and confidence of their fellow-citizens.

We have in Alexandria, almost invariably, peaceful and quiet elections, and we hope the good old rule will not be departed from to-morrow.

LAND SALE.—Among the property sold at Fairfax Court House on Monday last was the fine estate of the late Commodore Jones, on the Leesburg turnpike, six miles from Georgetown, called Sharon, containing 242 acres. It brought $45 per acre and was purchased by Mr. John Shipman who lives near Lewinsville.

MASONIC FAIR.—The Masonic festival opened last night and is, as anticipated, a great success. It will continue several days, on each of which lunch will be served from 12 to 2 o'clock. The ladies of the festival will accept our thanks for the lunch sent to this office to-day.

CHRIST CHURCH FESTIVAL.—The festival of the ladies of Christ Church, at the Assembly Rooms, still continues to be an attractive place at which to spend an evening. The ladies will accept our thanks for a nice lunch.

Local Brevities.

The name of Mr. John S. Beach on the 3d Ward Conservative Council ticket was substituted for that of K. Keuper declined, because a resolution adopted at the 3d Ward meeting directed vacancies on the ticket to be filled by those having the next highest number of votes, and Mr. Beach had received the next highest number.

A little son of Mr. John Birrell fell off an ash box in front of his father's house yesterday evening, cut a severe gash in his forehead, knocked out some of his teeth and received other injuries.

The steamer Lady of the Lake from Norfolk brought up this morning a large number of delegates and visitors to the Episcopal Council lately in session in that city, among them Gen. Huger of the Plains.

Three of the colored men engaged on the market house building, refused to unite with the strikers—and will fare the better for it. Hands will be employed in the place of the "strikers."

The loss sustained by damage to grain belonging to Suttle & Stuart, at the fire to-day, has been already adjusted and paid by the Alexandria Insurance Company, who had a risk upon it.

Messrs. Green & Wise, Real Estate Agents, yesterday sent five land buyers from Canada, two from Michigan and one from Ohio up the line of the O. A. & M. R. R. in charge of their travelling agent.

The Alexandria Musical Association will give a concert on Friday night next for the benefit of Professor Evans. An accomplished lady vocalist from New York will take part in the programme.

Mr. A. B. Travis has been appointed Deputy Collector of U. S. Customs and will take charge of the new port of Potomac (Quantico), and not Deputy Collector of this port as stated yesterday.

Rev. Mr. McGill, now of Fauquier county has accepted the call to the Episcopal Churches at Fairfax Court House and Centerville and will enter upon his duties on the 1st of July.

A large rat killed two rabbits and four kittens in the house of a gentleman in the Third Ward last night, but was afterwards caught in a trap and met its own death.

In the list of the members of the Alexandria bar who attended Fairfax Court on Monday should have been inserted Col. M. D. Ball, accidentally omitted yesterday.

Mr. Graves, the toll gate keeper on the Washington Turnpike, resigned and was not removed from that position.

The gable end of the foundry building, corner of Wilkes and Pitt streets, was struck by lightning this evening and knocked down.

The automaton musical box which has been on exhibition at the jewelry store of Mr. W. W. Adam, will be raffled off at 8 o'clock to-night.

Flocks of bull bats, which were never seen before, flew over the city last evening, going north.

The steam tug Atlantic left here to-day for Rugged Point, to the relief of the schooner A. J. Bentley ashore there.

Mr. Holland, has purchased some remarkably fine cattle from Illinois, which are to be slaughtered for sale in this market.

Strawberries are coming on apace. The fair held here are quite plentifully supplied.

A case of dropsy cured by eating lemons is reported in this city.

The Mechanic's Home Association will meet at the Friendship Engine House to-night.

But two fishing shores are now sending fish to Fishtown.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 22, 1872. CONGRESS.

The Senate continued the session of yesterday all night, and until 10 o'clock this morning. The session was one of the most important that has ever occurred.

The Ku Klux, (suspension of habeas corpus) Supplementary Civil Rights, (giving negroes right to full privileges in hotels, cars, &c., and making all public schools mixed schools) were passed, as was the Amnesty bill, which had already passed the House.

The House of Representatives met at 11 o'clock. Upon the opening, the credentials of a member from North Carolina, excluded by reason of political disabilities, were presented and the member advanced to be sworn in.

The question was then raised whether the Amnesty bill was a law without the signature of the President, pending which the regular order was demanded and the subject went over.

The House then took up the motion for an investigation of the charges against Messrs. Mullet & Shepard, with regard to frauds in copper roofing contracts.

AMNESTY. The following bill to remove political disabilities imposed by the fourteenth article of the amendments of the Constitution of the United States, has passed both Houses of Congress and only awaits the President's signature to become a law:

Be it enacted, &c., That all political disabilities imposed by the third section of the fourteenth article of amendments of the Constitution of the United States are hereby removed from all persons whomsoever, except Senators and Representatives of the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses, officers in judicial, military, and naval service of the United States, heads of Departments, and foreign ministers of the United States.

The Treaty. NEW YORK, May 22.—A special from London, of the 21st, to the Herald, says:—"The English papers continue to discuss the Treaty of Washington and the supplementary article thereto with undiminished interest. The editorial generally are inspired by a desire to prevent a failure of the arbitration and save the treaty."

An article in a contrary sense printed by the Pall Mall Gazette, to-night, is remarkable for its truthful and just appreciation of the danger of endeavoring to save the treaty at the expense of national susceptibility.

The following is an extract:—"The whole drift of feeling and opinion in England justifies saying that the worst thing to do with the treaty is to save it. Saving the treaty means offence and humiliation to America or to England, or to both nations. It means renewal and not abatement of the ill feeling it was intended to allay. How to save the treaty means who shall eat the leeks, or whether some means cannot be invented whereby both parties shall agree to eat it in each other's presence. The American papers appear to entertain against the adoption of the supplementary article."

Here there is only one opinion and that is that its acceptance would be discredit and danger to both peoples would be pacified and content at once if the treaty and the negotiations connected therewith were dropped, as an irretrievable blunder for which the two governments are alone to blame. That is the proper fate of the treaty and the only safe and peaceful way of disposing of it."

This article states explicitly the situation in England, and is a just expression of the best opinion here. It is certain that persons, bankers, financial agents and others who are determined to save the treaty at whatever cost without regard to national dignity or honor, are bringing about a dangerous complication. The same with those unwise politicians who are meeting to make party capital out of international difficulty. The further negotiation of the treaty will only excite an irritation that may eventually put two proud nations in an attitude from which war can be the only possible issue. The treaty should be dropped immediately for the sake of national amity, goodwill and peace.

From New York. NEW YORK, May 22.—The excitement among the working classes in this city still continues, although the demands of the carpenters, masons and bricklayers and plumbers have been agreed to. The pattern makers, cabinet makers, upholsterers and sash makers are holding hourly sessions with an early prospect of success.

Wardens Tracey, keeper of Ludlow street jail, presented a bill for six months from June to December 1871, which amounted to $24,875, and swore that each item was correct. Comptroller Green caused an expert to examine the accounts, and it is said the claim was found to be two large by $77,34. Tracey submitted finally to have the bill cut down.

A great fire is raging in Bear Swamp near Trenton N. J. Loss thus far $20,000.

The trial of Jersey city officers Bunsted, Vreeland and Walsh on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the city began yesterday.

During an affray in a beer saloon in Johnson street, Brooklyn, last night, John Merklely fatally stabbed John Keyser, the proprietor of the saloon, who also had his skull fractured with a paving stone. Merklely was arrested.

The Methodist Conference. NEW YORK, May 22.—At the Methodist General Conference this morning balloting for three additional bishops to those elected yesterday was continued and at ten o'clock the tellers retired to count the votes. In the meantime a discussion took place in reference to the reports of class leaders. At 11 o'clock the tellers returned and announced the vote as follows: E. G. Andrews, 236; Gilbert Haven, 209. These two were declared elected. Jesse T. Peck received 198 votes, J. W. Walden 160; E. O. Hawland, 127; T. M. Eddy 96 and J. M. Reid 93. Ballots were then cast for the remaining bishop.

Foreign News. PARIS, May 22.—The Commission on Capitulations in their report relative to the surrender of Strasbourg blame General Ulrich on all points for the capitulation of the city. He is especially censured for securing for himself and officers exemption from the conditions imposed upon his enlisted men by the German Commander to whom he surrendered.

BERLIN, May 22.—The Imperial Army band which is to take part in the world's peace jubilee at Boston will leave this city for the United States on the 31st instant.

Marine Disaster. NORFOLK, VA., May 22.—A dispatch from Newbern reports the brig Marcellus, from the West Indies with a cargo of Sugar and Molasses is ashore near Cape Hatteras, Baker and Brother, wreckers, have sent assistance from here.

Weather Report. WAR DEPARTMENT, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, WASHINGTON, May 22, 10 a. m.

Probabilities.—The lowest barometer, over Indiana and Illinois will move northwesterly over the lower lakes. The area of cloud and rain will extend eastward over the Middle States during the day and evening, with southeasterly winds veering to southwesterly, and over New England to-night with winds veering to southerly. Cloudy and threatening weather to southerly. Cloudy and threatening weather to southerly. Cloudy and threatening weather to southerly.

The Markets. NEW YORK, May 22.—Stocks steady. Gold firm at 132. Money easy at 6 1/2. Virginia 48; 48; 55. Flour unchanged. Wheat quiet and steady. Corn firm.

BALTIMORE, May 22.—Virginia sixes, old, 40; do coupon, old, 47. Virginia consolidated 5 1/2. West Virginia 17 1/2. Cotton quiet, but firm; midlings 23 1/2. Flour firm and unchanged. Wheat quiet and unchanged; Pennsylvania red and amber 22 1/2 to 23, but yellow do. 72; mixed Western 72. Oats firmer; Western 50 1/2; Southern nominal at 60. Rye quiet and unchanged.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate yesterday a petition of colored citizens of Georgia was presented, asking aid to emigrate to Liberia. A disposition to hurry work on the Tariff and Tax bills was shown by the Committee on Finance obtaining leave to hold continuous sessions. The bill to prolong the power of the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus was taken up, and Mr. Alcorn finished his remarks in his personal squabble between himself and his colleague from Mississippi, General Ames. Mr. Bayard made a general argument against the bill.

The House of Representatives reported the Postoffice Appropriation bill was reported, and the Senate amendment increasing the subsidy of the California and China Steamship line to $1,000,000 yearly was concurred in. Other amendments were rejected and a committee of conference ordered. The Sundry Civil Appropriation bill was considered. Amendments appropriating $246,000 to carry out the steamboat law and $800,000 for a public building in Cincinnati, were also agreed to. Mr. Farnsworth made an attack on the integrity of the supervising architect of the Treasury, Mr. Mullett.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PROVIDE AGAINST DANGER.—At this season all the great lines of travel begin to swarm with human beings intent on business or pleasure. It is a danger which will be met by the use of the danger which ensues from drinking different varieties of water and breathing atmospheres to which their lungs are unaccustomed? Do they realize how important it is to be prepared with an antidote that will destroy the germs of disease and prevent the consequences of such changes and from all ailments and disturbances which arise from the miasma so plentifully evolved from the soil at this period of the year? Such an antidote—certainly in the most effective operation—has been discovered by a practical physician, and its composition and flavor—has been for twenty years before the world. No instance can be adduced, during that period, in which Hostet's Stomach Bitters has failed as an acclimating medicine, or as a preventive of the bodily ills to which the body is liable in unhealthy localities.

A good appetite, perfect digeston, a vigorous condition of the nervous system, functional regularity, and a pure and active circulation, are the elements of health, and these signals being absent, are caused and perpetuated by the use of this powerful, yet harmless, vegetable tonic. It is the experience of all who have ever taken it as a safeguard against the diseases which debility, irregularity and a morbid condition of the solids and fluids of the body are sure to invite.

PHYSICIANS USE THEM IN THEIR PRACTICE.—It is almost universally the case that physicians condemn what are generally known as "Patent Medicines." Although Dr. Tait's Liver and Kidney Medicine, yet its composition (the result of years of study) is known only to himself, and so palpable are their valuable curative properties, that very many of the first physicians in the South and West have adopted them in their practice, and recommended them to their patients.

Shelby county, Ala., Sept. 12, 1869. Dr. Wm. H. Tait: Sir—Although I am an M.D., and naturally hostile to all "nostalgias," yet "feeling is believing, and feeling is the naked truth." No. 1, from actual observation, that your Liver Pills are all you represent them to be, and a little more besides. I shall always recommend them.
